

Beth A. Lowry
President & CEO
Holder Construction

Beth Lowry is a graduate of the University of Florida, with a Bachelor of Science degree from the M.E. Rinker, Sr. School of Construction Management (1995)

Beth is the President and CEO of Holder Construction Company. Beth started her career with Holder in 1994 as an intern and joined Holder full-time in 1995 upon graduating from The Rinker School. Holder Construction is a $6 billion construction services firm based in Atlanta, Georgia since 1960. Beth is the first female in Holder's history to serve as President & CEO.

Beth is active in the Atlanta community serving on several current and past civic and trade association boards. She's a United Way of Greater Atlanta Ivan Allen Circle member and active member of the Tocqueville Society. She is an active member of the Rotary Club of Atlanta, YPO, Metro Chamber of Atlanta Board of Directors, Kennesaw State University Foundation Trustee, the Atlanta Police Foundation, and Holy Innocents Episcopal School Trustee. She serves on the several not-for-profit boards including CareerRise, Associated General Contractors of America Georgia Chapter, and the Latin American Association.

She has a deep passion for advancing women of all ages across all industries. She serves on several community initiatives focused on economic mobility, training, and safe working environments for the greater construction workforce. In 2022, she created the Lowry Family Scholarship at Kennesaw State University providing an endowed scholarship for underrepresented freshmen pursuing a degree in construction management.